

Meet the Class

- 100:
 - Question: Roughly 3 out of 4 Dallas College students are enrolled this way, meaning most of your students have a lot going on outside your classroom.
Answer: Part-time
- 200:
 - Question: 27% of Dallas College students under the age of 18. What program brings many of them here?
 - Answer: Dual Credit
- 300:
 - Question: If you picture a "typical college student" as someone living on campus and going to school full-time, this is roughly the percent of your Dallas College students that actually describes.
 - Answer: 0%
- 400:
 - Question: More than half of Dallas College students identify with this ethnic group.
 - Answer: Hispanic
- 500:
 - Question: Roughly this percentage of our students are food insecure, making campus resources like the food pantry especially valuable.
 - Answer: 50%

Not Just an Org Chart

- 100:
 - Question: The functional areas of Dallas College are Academics, Student Success, Operations, and Advancement & Innovations. Which functional area are you - and CETL! - in?
 - Answer: Academics
 - Image: functional-areas.png
- 200:
 - Question: Dallas College faculty are organized broadly into _____, then further divided by discipline. Do you know which one you're in?
 - Answer: Schools
 - Image: academics-schools-disciplines.png
- 300:

- Question: If you have questions about your assigned courses, who's the best person to talk to?
 - Answer: Your department chair
 - Image: your-chair.png
- 400:
 - Question: You've received an important email about Dallas College from our chancellor! What's his name?
 - Answer: Dr. Justin Lonon
 - Image: dr-lonon.webp
- 500:
 - Question: You'll regularly receive updates about faculty processes and requirements from our provost. What's her name?
 - Answer: Dr. Shawnda Floyd
 - Image: dr-floyd.webp